

aapay sayvaa laa-idaa pi-aaraa aapay bhagat omaahaa

sriT mhl 4 ] (606-13)	sorath mehlaa 4.	Sorat'h, Fourth Mehl:
AapysyW I wiedW ipAarW AapyBgiq amihW ]	aapay sayvaa laa-idaa pi-aaraa aapay bhagat omaahaa.	The Beloved Himself commits some to His service; He Himself blesses them with the joy of devotional worship.
Aapygix gwIwiedW ipAarW Aapy sbid smihW ]	aapay gun gaavaa-idaa pi-aaraa aapay sabad samaahaa.	The Beloved Himself causes us to sing His Glorious Praises; He Himself is absorbed in the Word of His Shabad.
AapyI Kix Awip il Kurl AapyI Ku il KihW ]1]	aapay laykhan aap likhaaree aapay laykh likhaahaa.   1	He Himself is the pen, and He Himself is the scribe; He Himself inscribes His inscription.   1
myrman j ip raam naam EmihW ]	mayray man jap raam naam omaahaa.	O my mind, joyfully chant the Name of the Lord.
AnidnuAnduhW/vfBgiI I Ygir pthYhir I whW ] rhauW ]	an-din anad hovai vad h aagee lai gur poorai har laahaa. rahaa-o.	Those very fortunate ones are in ecstasy night and day; through the Perfect Guru, they obtain the profit of the Lord's Name.   Pause
Aapygpl kuru hYipAarW bin Aapy galcruhW ]	aapay gopee kaan hai pi-aaraa ban aapay ga-oo charaahaa.	The Beloved Himself is the milk-maid and Krishna; He Himself herds the cows in the woods.
AapysivI sbirW ipAarW Aapyvshu vj whW ]	aapay saaval sundraa pi-aaraa aapay vans vajaahaa.	The Beloved Himself is the blue-skinned, handsome one; He Himself plays on His flute.
kul IA w pIvU Awip mwiedW ipAarW kir bil k rIp pcuhW ]2]	kuvlee-aa peerh aap maraa-idaa pi-aaraa kar baalak roop pachaahaa.   2	The Beloved Himself took the form of a child, and destroyed Kuwalia-peer, the mad elephant.   2
Awip AKwVw pwiedW ipAarW kir vKY Awip cj whW ]	aap akhaarhaa paa-idaa pi-aaraa kar vaykhai aap chojaahaa.	The Beloved Himself sets the stage; He performs the plays, and He Himself watches them.
kir bil k rIp apwiedW ipAarW clfhu kshu ksumrwhW ]	kar baalak roop upaa-idaa pi-aaraa chandoor kans kays maaraahaa.	The Beloved Himself assumed the form of the child, and killed the demons Chandoor, Kansa and Kaysee.
Aapyhl bl u Awip hYipAarW bl u BmY mlK mgDihW ]3]	aapay hee bal aap hai pi-aaraa bal bhannai moorakh mugDhaahaa.   3	The Beloved Himself, by Himself, is the embodiment of power; He shatters the power of the fools and idiots.   3
sBu Aapyj gquapwiedW ipAarW vis Aapyj igiq hQuhW ]	sabh aapay jagat upaa-idaa pi-aaraa vas aapay jagat hathaahaa.	The Beloved Himself created the whole world. In His hands He holds the power of the ages.
gil j yVI Aapy pwiedW ipAarW ij au pBu iKtY iqauj whW ]	gal jayvrhee aapay paa-idaa pi-aaraa ji-o parabh khinchai ti-o jaahaa.	The Beloved Himself puts the chains around their necks; as God pulls them, must they go.
j ogrbIsopcsI ipAaryj ip nuwk Bgiq smwhW ]4]6]	jo garbai so pachsee pi-aaray jap naanak bhagat samaahaa.   4  6	Whoever harbors pride shall be destroyed, O Beloved; meditating on the Lord, Nanak is absorbed in devotional worship.   4  6