jhim jhimay jhim jhim varsai amrit Dhaaraa raam

Awsw mhl w 4] (442-19)	aasaa mehlaa 4.	Aasaa, Fourth Mehl:
iJim iJmyiJim iJim vrsYA MmQ Dwrw rwm]	jh im jh imay jh im jh im varsai amri t Dh aaraa raam.	Slowly, slowly, very slowly, the drops of Ambrosial Nectar trickle down.
grmKygrmiK ndrl rwmuipAwrwrwm]	gurmu kh ay gurmu kh na d ree raam pi-aaraa raam.	As Gurmukh, the Gurmukh beholds the Lord, the Beloved Lord.
rwm nwmwipAwrwjgqinsqwrwrwm nwim vifAwel]	raam naam pi-aaraa jaga t nis t aaraa raam naam vadi-aa-ee.	The Name of the Lord, the Emancipator of the world, is dear to him; the Name of the Lord is his glory.
kiljig rwm nwmubihQw gurmiK pwir Gwel]	kalijug raam naam bohithaa gurmu kh paar lag h aa-ee.	In this Dark Age of Kali Yuga, the Lord's Name is the boat, which carries the Gurmukh across.
hliq pliq rwm nwim shyly gırmüK krxl swrl]	hala t pala t raam naam suhaylay gurmu kh kar n ee saaree.	This world, and the world hereafter, are adorned with the Lord's Name; the Gurmukh's lifestyle is the most excellent.
nwnk dwiq dieAw kir dyVrwm nwim insqwrl]1]	naanak d aa t d a-i-aa kar d ayvai raam naam nis t aaree. 1	O Nanak, bestowing His kindness, the Lord gives the gift of His emancipating Name. 1