

ab jan oopar ko na pukaarai

swrg mhl w 5] (1217-13)	saarag mehlaa 5.	Saarang, Fifth Mehl:
Ab j n alpir kon pkwrY]	ab jan oopar ko na pukaarai.	Now, no one complains about the Lord's humble servant.
pkwrn kau j o admu krqw guru prmysruqw kau mwrY]1] rhwau]	pookaaran ka-o jo udam kartaa gur parmaysar taa ka-o maarai. 1 rahaa-o.	Whoever tries to complain is destroyed by the Guru, the Transcendent Lord God. 1 Pause inrvYslg vhu rcwY hir drgh Ehu hwrY]	nirvairai sang vair rachaavai har dargeh oh haarai.	Whoever harbors vengeance against the One who is beyond all vengeance, shall lose in the Court of the Lord.
Awid j gwid pB kl vifAwel j n kl pj svwrY]1]	aad jugaad parabh kee vadi-aa-ee jan kee paj savaarai. 1	From the very beginning of time, and throughout the ages, it is the glorious greatness of God, that He preserves the honor of His humble servants. 1
inrBau Bey sgl Bau imitAw crn kml AwDwrY]	nirbha-o bha-ay sagal bha-o miti- aa charan kamal aaDhaarai.	The mortal becomes fearless, and all his fears are taken away, when he leans on the Support of the Lord's Lotus Feet.
gur kYbcin j ipE nwaunwk pjt BieE slwrY]2]45]68]	gur kai bachan japi-o naa-o naanak pargat bha-i-o sansaarai. 2 45 68	Chanting the Name, through the Guru's Word, Nanak has become famous throughout the world. 2 45 68